Dr Eduard Pfeifer was president and co-founder of the Wuerttembergische Vereinsbank in Stuttgart since 1904 and president of the "Society for the Welfare of the Working Class" and supported important housing projects for workers, in 1909 he became a citizen of honour of Stuttgart.

(A) Marx Pfeiffer's family sheet in Stuttgart shows his birth date as 25 Jul 1787, Weikersheim birth records show his birth date as 16 Aug 1786.

(B) Marx Pfeiffer's grandfather was Marx Anshel, who became a Court Jew for the Count of Hohenlohe in Weikersheim in 1761, built a new synagogue in Weikersheim in 1768 and died there in 1780. Marx Pfeiffer's father was born as "Pfeiffer Marx" and later (around 1824 or even before) changed his name to "Ezechiel Pfeiffer", adopting "Pfeiffer" as last name for his family.

(C) Josef David Loeb Biedermann was the son of Michael Lazarus Biedermann, who was born in Pressburg (Hungary) in 1769 and went to Vienna (Austria) as a young boy. He started as a seal engraver, later became a jeweller and finally a successful whole sale merchant (first with wool, later also with agricultural goods). He died in Vienna in 1843.

(D) Eduard Pfeiffer and his wife are buried at the christian part of the Prag cemetery in Stuttgart, and so are his sister Clarisse Kaulla and her son Alfred von Kaulla.
