Second wife Jeanette Pfeiffer plus all children left Weikersheim in 1839.

(A) Aron Pfeiffer's grandfather was Marx Anshel, who became a Court Jew for the Count of Hohenlohe in Weikersheim in 1761, built a new synagogue in Weikersheim in 1768 and died there in 1780. Aron Pfeiffer's father was born as "Pfeiffer Marx" and later (around or even before 1824) changed his name to "Ezechiel Pfeiffer", adopting "Pfeiffer" as family name.

(B) Maier Kaula (1757 - 1823) was also a banker, he was a son of famous Court Jewess Madame Kaula of Hechingen and Stuttgart. Maier Kaula's wife Bele was a daughter of Court Jew Suessel Nathan Bing in Darmstadt.

(C) Eduard Pfeiffer's grave inscription at Prag Cemetery:

"Ja sonst an keinem Orte wohnt die ersehnte Ruh, und nur durch diese Pforte geht man der Heimat zu"

Some death dates come as written on the back of an old family photo, provided by Mrs Aliette Ulmann nee Pfeifer in connection with GenAmi (Association de Généalogie Juive Internationale) in Paris, France.
