Klöckner Management Development Program

with a direct reporting line to the CEO

For the Klöckner Management Development Program we are looking for passionate graduates and professionals who make a difference.

Program Highlights

The Klöckner Management Development Program offers you an exceptional opportunity to develop your management skills in a high-performance work environment. Within 24 months you will learn how to work in the context of challenging national and international projects - from exploring new business opportunities to improving current business including analysis and consultancy activities, and you will receive off-the-job management training. You will get a profound insight into a multi-national corporation and contribute actively to important decisions directly in the team of the Group-CEO. If you are ready to become a future-oriented manager, your road to career advancement begins at Klöckner.

Your Profile

- You graduated with an MBA, Masters Degree or comparable qualification (e.g. economic sciences, industrial engineering, trade management, logistics, supply chain management)
- You have gained first practical experience (e.g. in supply chain management, internships, student jobs) or have initial professional experience
- You are analytical and solution-oriented
- You possess a high degree of self-guidance as well as influencing skills
- You consider fast decision making, the ability to act and responsible risk taking as your strengths
- You are able to think like an entrepreneur and work with a complete customer focus
- You have an authentic and stable personality which keeps you down to earth and allows you to show sensitivity and flexibility for people and markets in a volatile environment.
