

Use of manuscripts, rare books and special collections

Shelf mark:

Reason for consulting above-named manuscript or print (title of thesis or planned publication, subject of project etc.)

Nature and number of any reproduction ordered or photographs made personally in the reading room

1. The reader is requested to submit to the Stadtbibliothek Mainz a copy of any publication which quotes above-named manuscript or print. This is to establish a documentation of literature concerning these works for other researchers. The library expects to receive a copy of such reader's publication(s) free of charge. If this proves impossible the reader is requested to give his aforesaid publication to the Stadtbibliothek Mainz at a reduced price or to inform the library of the bibliographical details.
2. Above-named manuscripts or prints consulted must be quoted in any publication. The quotation has to include the shelf mark as well as the words „Bibliotheken der Stadt Mainz – Wissenschaftliche Stadtbibliothek“.
3. The reader is requested to seek written permission of the Stadtbibliothek Mainz before using illustrations as well as before publishing any edition or facsimile of the above-named manuscript or print.
4. The reproductions are for personal use only. The reader is not allowed to reproduce yet again, sell or hand over to a third party any reproduction he has made.
